Alsip's Leap—A Possibility that he has Escaped

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 10—Detectives engaged in searching for Alsip who jumped from the ship Valparaiso as she was entering the harbor on Tuesday night have thus far found no clue indicating that he succeeded in making shore. It is thought now that there was more method in his rash act than was at first supposed. Alsip is known to have been an expert swimmer and it now appears that after he was missing a sailmaker's bench and a paddle belonging to the vessel were also found to have disappeared. Detectives generally express the opinion that he could not have made the shore and the pilot of the Valparaiso believes that no man could have lived in the chopping sea that prevailed at the time when Alsip took to the water, but as he had an opportunity to communicate by letter forwarded by steamer with friends in this city after his arrest and before he left Callao it is thought possible that he may have had assistance from this city in his escape and that a boat may have been stationed ready to pick him up when he left the ship. Whether or not there is any truth in this theory his expected arrival in San Francisco on the Valparaiso was certainly known by others besides the police authorities, and on the morning after the Valparaiso entered at this port and before the fact of Alsip's escape had been published or generally known several persons called at the police office and inquired whether he was in the city prison.

The Sumners Suit Submitted

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct 10—Defendant's demurrer to the complaint of John H Burke against J C Flood and the estate of Wm J O'Brien deceased to recover $26 000 000 was submitted to the court to day for decision without argument on either side the points of law raised being similar in all respects to one brought against the Nevada Bank and Pacific refinery by the same plaintiff and which were both fully argued and submitted a few days ago.

Geo Painter recently stole a saddle from Troy Smith living near Lebanon and is now serving out a term for the offense in the Linn county jail.

A remarkable accident occurred at the bridge over the Santiam canal in Linn county last week. A team belonging to Mr J Gal... and driven by Mr Cassady was crossing with a heavy load and had just gone off the bridge on to the apron, when the stringer broke and the decking slipped off the lower side into the water taking the wagon with it. This drew the horses back and threw them above the upper stringer with the wagon on the other side. The harness being strong held the horses in that position with their heels in the air and their heads most of the time under water. After some delay the horses were cut down, both being considerably bruised and one nearly drowned and besides the wagon was badly demoralized about half the load of flour lost also a good overcoat some bed quilts which covered the load and several other articles. The driver Mr Cassady was bruised severely and it is a great wonder he got off with his life.

A POST AT LAKE CHELAN

Walla Walla papers report that a few weeks ago the Hon T H Brents of Washington Territory, put a favorable indorsement on the request of Hon Edward Whitson representing the inhabitants of Yakima county to have the new military post located in Kittitas valley and sent it to the secretary of war. That officer replied by sending a copy of General Sherman's report on the subject which is as follows:

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY
WASHINGTON D C Sept. 3 1879

Respectfully Submitted to the Hon Secretary of War. In locating a new post or camp it is not [illegible] to be influenced by the opinions of citizens who have personal interests to serve. Gen Howard who commands that department has repeatedly and earnestly advised the post to be built near Lake Chelan and he has been authorized to expend $20,000 and no more. I advised that no change be made, as the responsibility now rests in the department commander approved by General McDowell. I have never been at either place, Chelan or Ellensburg but have been within a hundred miles of both. It is utterly impossible for us in Washington to select the exact spot for a new post but on the maps Lake Chelan appears ... better place. Ellensburg ought to grow and needs no protection. FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT DISASTER

Collision at Jackson, Michigan, on the Central Line

Details of the Disaster—Many Persons Killed and Wounded—Distressing Incidents, Etc., Etc.

DETROIT Oct. 10—A serious accident occurred on the Michigan Central railroad a short distance east of Jackson this morning. The Pacific express train bound west which left Detroit forty minutes late collided with a switch engine on the main track at that place telescoping the baggage and express car and piling the remaining coaches, eleven in number on top of the others. The first coach was filled with emigrants most of whom are killed or seriously injured. Many occupants of other coaches are also killed or injured. It is supposed that there are about twenty or twenty five passengers killed and twenty to thirty wounded. The majority of the number are thought to be emigrants and second class passengers.

Physicians and surgeons were at once summoned from Jackson to the scene of the accident and a special train carrying physicians left Detroit at ... A M. A large force of employes of the railroad company together with a large number of the citizens of Jackson are on the ground engaged in the work of extricating bodies from the wreck. Railroad officials and surgeons are busily at work among the wounded doing everything in their power to alleviate suffering.

The names of the killed and wounded will be sent as soon as they can be ascertained. S M Sparklin of Philadelphia, thinks his wife and children aged four and six are among the dead but their bodies have not been found. The engineer and fireman of the express train were literally torn to pieces but the engineer and fireman of the switch engine escaped injury by jumping from the engine. The train was made up of seven Wagner sleepers, four passenger coaches and mail and baggage cars. The tender of the express engine was telescoped into the baggage car about half a length. this car in turn pierced the mail car and these crowded the first passenger coach.

Up to noon eight dead bodies had been taken from the wreck of the express. Ten of those taken from the wreck have not yet been identified. The identified killed are Milton F Ibert engineer of the express train, C B Smith of Jackson fireman of the express train, John Rice, wife and daughter of Philadelphia, Mrs Garland and a 13 year old daughter of Philadelphia, Louis Mergeo of Buckingham Canada and the infant daughter of Mrs George A Jones of Pennsylvania. Following is a list of the wounded as far as can be ascertained: M D Carlisle, express messenger of Detroit collar bone broken. A O Bonnett, baggage man, of Detroit badly cut and bruised. Wm Buggy of Troy Ontario right leg and thigh crushed. Daniel Finn of Chicago head cut and bruised. S M Sparlin of Philadelphia cut in head and hurt internally. Arthur Rogers of Philadelphia, cut and bruised not dangerous. Reuben Carter of Gardiner Illinois hands cut and left thigh broken. Geo A Cunningham of Janesville Wis left arm broken in two places. Hor Mi das cut and bruised. E J Farnell of St Catherines Ontario left leg broken. Mrs. E J Farnell of St Catherines severely injured in the head and knee. Mrs J F Farnell of Toronto head cut. John Jeffries of Newark head crushed probably fatal. Willie Rice aged four of Philadelphia, leg broken and face cut, recovery doubtful—father mother and sister all killed. Mrs Laura A Finley of Walworth N Y bruised about the head and face. Mrs R J Warren of Ganges Mich bruised about the back and shoulders. Henry Burrows of New Foundland Penn cut in the head. A Mason Nurve, a Frenchman of Buckingham Canada, severe contusion of face and head. Palmas Mason Nurve of Buckingham Canada cut in the head and leg. Gilbert M Benjamin of Jersey Heights N Y hip head and lungs slight. William Branny of Galt Ontario bruised. Mrs. A M Steele of Detroit, leg sprained and body bruised. Mrs Thos Clement of Lockport arm and head badly cut severely bruised on the back and head. Mrs B B Hart of Clinton Iowa head cut severely. Robert Neill of Trenton Canada injured in back and body. Leopold Hoffman of Randolph Mass cut in head and and face. Mrs Geo A Jones of Chatodo Tenn cut on the hand and bruises on the head.

Combatting the Exodus

NEW YORK Oct. 10—The Times of to day says: The agents of colored men from North Carolina who are in Washington seeking to make arrangements for the emigration of a portion of their race from their present homes have received letters from colored friends in North Carolina telling them it would not be safe to return home just yet, as the whites are highly incensed and threaten to do violence to the two agents for having expressed themselves so freely to a Times correspondent regarding the condition of their people south. Intelligence has also been received of a stratagem on the part of the whites to prevent the threatened exodus this fall. They propose to keep back money owed colored people and purchase cotton and other crops upon credit or for scrip only. In cases where colored men rent farms landlords will not consent to the sale of crops until they receive their own third as rent and will decline to receive their portion for several months to come which, under the landlord and tenant act passed for their especial benefit they have a perfect right to do. By thus withholding from the colored people their just dues they hope to keep them penniless and defeat the emigration movement.

Gov Blackburn and the Yellow Fever Plot

NEW YORK Oct 10—The Times Cincinnati special says: The unique explanation by the friends of Gov Blackburn of Kentucky first that he was never interested in a yellow fever plot second that the plot was a joke and third that the people of Kentucky approved the plot has revived the publication of Blackburn literature here. The Gazette will to morrow publish the official history of Blackburn's operations in the yellow fever hospital at Havana—an entirely new branch of the subject. It brings to light a fact which explains the probable contents of the valise which it was proved that during the assassination trial Dr Blackburn tried to induce one Hymans to take to the United States and send by express as a gift to Lincoln. This Havana history sets forth that among other clothing that Blackburn took to the hospital to have infected was a black suit, which he proposed to send to Lincoln as a pretended present from the workmen of Manchester. Hymans' statement heretofore printed is fully corroborated by this official testimony. The announcement that Blackburn would make a speech at Columbus this week, by invitation of the democratic committee is withdrawn.

How Tilden Bought Indiana

From the New York Times

If the late conference of the national democratic executive committee in Washington accomplished nothing else it did shed some light on the celebrated mislaid dispatch of Chairman W H Barnum. The usual appeal was made at that conference for more money for campaign purposes Ohio being in sore need. Ex Senator Barnum is reported as saying that this was an old story the western democrats clamored for greenbacks and denounced eastern democrats as bloated bondholders and remorseless capitalists. But said Mr Barnum the only Western state carried by the democrats in 1876 was won at the eleventh hour by sinews of war from the east. Mr Barnum was in Indianapolis Oct 10 1876 and received from Abram S Hewitt a dispatch authorizing him to buy seven more mules. It was fairly interpreted to mean you may draw for $7000 and it was understood and believed that Mr S J Tilden furnished the cash. Indiana went democratic and now Mr Barnum lets slip the truth when he says that the state was carried at the eleventh hour by sinews of war from the east.

The Southern Situation

From the Cincinnati Gazette

A recent letter written by a Mississippi ... ess ... to a correspondent in Cincinnati contains the following: The aggregate of the taxable property of this county has ... under democratic rule to one third its value under republican rule and is still depreciating. ... oppressive and obnoxious has red shirt Winchester rifle and Bourbon rule generally become that the democratic party in Mississippi ... is to day badly disintegrated and disorganized—scarcely a county in the state in which there are not opposing parties. It is now safe to criticise the conduct and methods of the democratic party while here ... it was much safer to say nothing. A few more republican victories in the north will immeasurably help southern republicans.

Foreign Demand for Canned Fruit

NEW YORK Oct 10—The Commercial Bulletin says: The canned goods trade is experiencing revival. Steamers leaving New York are heavily freighted with canned meats, fruits and vegetables. There is considerable appreciation in the value of canned tomatoes, not only on account of the strong demand ... also because of a short crop of tomatoes ... in the west. Orders have poured upon manufacturers faster than they can be ... and the result is that prices have gone up from ten to fifty per cent.

Republicans of the east who expect Tilden will be nominated next year are collecting and preserving all the ugly things said about him by democrats like Chalmers and others. In case Tilden is nominated the utterances of leading democrats who now oppose him will make an excellent campaign document for the republicans.

THE WASHINGTON LEGISLATURE.

[SPECIAL REPORT FOR THE OREGONIAN]

OLYMPIA, Oct 9 1879

We were favored with an additional stimulant to day which has once more sent the Olympian pulse up into the hundreds. Mr White of the house offered a joint resolution which was unanimously adopted directing the president of the council and speaker of the house to invite General Grant to visit our territory and especially Olympia that he may be welcomed by our representatives. As a consequence but little else is talked of on the streets. Our old settlers are reburnishing their memories and retelling their old stories about the hero of the hour while those who have never seen him stand upon the acme of expectancy.

Mr Taylor introduced a bill regulating proceedings in civil actions.

Mr Percival introduced a bill prohibiting hogs from running at large in Stevens Whitman and Columbia counties.

Mr Taylor introduced a bill regulating actions and proceedings to recover or effecting real estate.

The house took a recess until 2 P M.

AFTERNOON SESSION

Messrs. White Farnsworth and Tilley were appointed a committee on the part of the house to act with Messrs McGlynn and La Du of the council to draft the Grant resolution.

Mr Guernsey introduced a bill to amend an act in relation to estrays referred.

Mr Frary introduced a bill defining lawful fences in Columbia and Stevens counties; referred. Adjourned.

The different committees appointed by the house to-day are busily engaged in preparing for their respective labors. The indications are that the session will be a busy one and that it will be necessary to hold night sessions.

A Absurd Story about Grant

NEW YORK Oct 10—A French publication here seriously announces that a report is current in Washington that General Grant has offered to conduct the campaign against the Utes, that finding himself in close proximity to the theater of the rebellion the idea naturally occurred to him like a good patriot to place his sword anew at the service of his country.

Nothing Doing and Everybody Going Home—Awards Being Paid

[SPECIAL CORRESPONDENCE OF THE OREGONIAN]

STATE FAIR GROUNDS
October 10 1879

The morning was cold and rainy though once or twice during the day the sun has shone. Everybody began packing up early and when the train for Portland leaves there will be but few people on the grounds. The officers have been busy all day settling with the various competitors for premiums. They pay them by warrants which are discounted at varying rates.

Little or nothing has transpired to day worth reporting. The premium list is of course a long one and it will take some time to get it into shape.

As the train leaves to night the fair grounds are virtually deserted and the fair this year so unfortunate in the bad weather that has prevailed during its entire continuance is among the things that were.

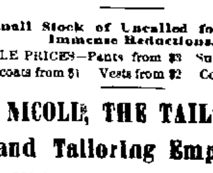
None Genuine without a Facsimile of this Stamp on Each Boot.



In this boot the counter is covered by a piece of leather extending from under the sole to some three inches above the upper edge of the counter or in other words the counter is between the leather of the boot and the protector and is not exposed either on the outside or the inside of the boot consequently the heel does not touch it at all thus one of the greatest objections to boots—the trouble of getting the heel over the counter or stiffening—is removed. This is an object of great importance to the consumer both in economy and comfort. On this point we need only appeal to the thousands who wear boots.

HERCULES

HERCULES

Another advantage gained by this arrangement is that the same piece of leather that covers and protects the counter also extends beyond the side seams covering those seams thereby greatly increasing their strength. Again in the old style boot the leg is able to sag or fall around the ankle but in the Hercules Boot this is rendered less liable by the counter protector as it doubles the leather at the point where the sagging usually takes place.

HERCULES

HERCULES

All boots—men's boys and youths—may be manufactured with this improvement though it is most desirable in heavy boots where great strength is required.

We have secured the Sole Right to Manufacture this Boot for the Pacific Coast.

INTERESTING COMPARISONS

A recent overhauling of the books of the treasury department has recalled to public attention the loan which was made to the states out of funds in the treasury during Jackson's administration and which has never been repaid. It will be remembered by those who have given attention to the history and events of that time that certain funds then in the treasury, were apportioned among the several states as a loan. A measure of a very questionable sort which probably could not now be repeated since events have set aside the old claim of the states to higher consideration than the national government. An effort will be made it is said to secure to the treasury repayment of this loan, so as to apply the amount on the national debt. It is not probable however that any measure of this sort can be got through congress as the southern representatives will all oppose it. Of this distribution of the public money it is almost needless to say the southern states got proportionally the larger share. The northern states could pay their part with all ease but the southern states could not. For instance the amount allotted to Ohio was $2,0[illegible] while the apportionment to Virginia was $2,198,427. Virginia got nearly $200,000 the more, and yet the taxable property of that state is now about one-fifth that of Ohio. It will readily be seen that Virginia will never consent to repayment of this money. Illinois got $477,01[illegible], which she could pay back almost without feeling it. On the other hand North Carolina got $1,433,757 which would be almost impossible for her to pay. Hardly that amount could be suddenly raised if the whole state was put up at auction. Michigan, with about five times the ability to pay, would have less than one-fifth the amount required by North Carolina. Nothing better illustrates the enormous growth of the northern states, compared with the southern, than these figures. South Carolina, with wealth now only about equal to that of Hamilton county, Ohio, got $1,051,422, or much more than Illinois and Michigan combined.

But it is not in wealth alone that the north has gained so rapidly on the south. For many years the two sections had about equal population. The increase of each is indicated by the following table

1790	1,968,4[illegible]3	1,961,[illegible]
1800	2,684,616	2,621,310
1810	3,758,9[illegible]0	3,480,902
1820	5,152,372	4,485,819
1830	7,008,230	5,848,[illegible]
1840	9,728,922	7,331,433
1850	13,599,458	9,658,[illegible]97
1860	19,128,418	12,317,872
1870	24,000,812	13,[illegible]
1880	32,000,100	16,000,000

Inhabitants of territories and Indians not taxed are included in the above table. It may be remarked, as an indication of political changes to follow the next apportionment of representatives, that the most rapid gain in the north is in the strong republican states. In the first congress chosen after the new apportionment of members the relative power of the solid south will be greatly reduced. The Chicago Tribune well says "It is monstrous now that the northern states containing two-thirds of the population, and more than that proportion of the wealth and intelligence of the country, should be governed by a democratic caucus which itself is ruled by a majority of southern brigadiers at Washington."

AFRAID OF A SOLID NORTH

The Honorable Thomas Hendricks, a statesman of the order and variety of our Honorable John Whiteaker, has been in Ohio making a speech which he has managed to get printed in some of the newspapers. We find in the Chicago Times a full report of the speech and an editorial analysis of it. About half the speech is well described as a labored defense of the governmental rag money "Ohio idea." The rest of it is devoted to the following subjects: 1. Defense of the solid-south partyism. 2. Defense of the solid-south programme. 3. Defense of the anti-national state-rights-ism. 4. Defense of Yazooism.

Mr. Hendricks denounces the idea of "a solid north against a solid south." He thinks it an idea "of hatred, of separation, of treason." But he is excessively pleased with the idea of a solid south, provided the north will remain divided and allow the south, that is the confederate democracy to govern the country. A solid south is all right. It is just, honorable, fraternal and patriotic. But a "solid north" would signify hatred and treason, and Mr. Hendricks hates treason, though he never had occasion to use the word when the confederate democracy was up in arms. Hendricks as a representative northern democrat, in taking this position, furnishes a new proof of the pitiful servility of the northern doughface to southern political masterdom. In this doughface system defense of state supremacy and of Yazooism comes in, as a natural part of the defense of the solid south. For without state supremacy and Yazooism the system would not be complete. It would lack means of enforcing itself and continuing the dominant power of the country. In the system of Mr. Hendricks the solid south is a good thing because it is solid for the democratic party. But a solid north would be "treason" itself, because by it the democratic party would be overthrown and all the labors by which the south has been made solid would be brought to naught. Hence the great fear of a solid north in the minds of Mr. Hendricks and his southern and northern coadjutors.

Thomas Doane, chief engineer of the Northern Pacific, has been ordered to give his personal superintendence to the work of construction between the Missouri and the Yellowstone, in order to expedite with all possible speed the extension of the line toward the west. The business of the road in Minnesota and Dakota is increasing at a rate which indicates an enormous development of the country in that quarter. The road is now delivering two hundred car loads of wheat a day at Duluth, where, for want of vessels, there is a wheat gorge or blockade quite unprecedented on the lakes. Production along the line of the road is already larger than the most sanguine had ever anticipated.

This is the way Senator Blaine was interviewed the other day in Ohio. Mr Blaine thinks the solid south will be confronted next year by a solid north, resulting in the election of the republican candidate for president. He was asked "Whom will the republicans nominate?" "I think the shotgun policy which is in vogue in Mississippi and other states——" "You failed to catch the drift of my question. Who will be the republican nominee for president?" "Of course, you have read all about Gen Grant's reception at San Francisco. It was a magnificent ovation to our illustrious fellow citizen, who is worthy of it all, and more too."

We cannot think it good policy on the part of the management of the Mechanics' Fair to allow a bar to be set up in the building. Though the matter is stated in an exaggerated form by Mr. Acton when he says that the fair under this arrangement is to be "a saloon with a little fair attached," yet there are good reasons to be urged against allowing liquors to be sold anywhere on the premises. If a refreshment stand is desired a proper thing would be to permit some one to establish a coffee and lunch room. No doubt [illegible] who would be willing to pay

[BILLIARD] MATCH.—Under date of Oct 10th [our] Salem correspondent sends the [following]: "A match game of billiards took [place this] evening between Josh Davis the champion of the northwest and [illegible] the champion cue and Charles [Riley], of Seattle, for $100 a side and the [champion]ship. Riley was favorite in the [betting at] small odds, although but little m[oney was] taken in the sale. The game was [begun at] 8 o'clock P M by the selection of [illegible] Chattres, of Albany, as referee and [illegible], of this city marker. Davis se[cured the] choice of balls and first play. We were [unable] to watch the game until the first [illegible], Riley securing the first turn [illegible] but six behind. The largest run [made] was seventeen, made by Davis [whose] [illegible] faculties were nicely [illegible]. The game did not close until about [illegible], the score being 300 to 220 in favor [of Davis]. The game excited no little inter[est] [and Davis] was warmly congratulated at [the close]."

[THE] ARMY BALL.—Every necessary ar[rangement] has been completed by the var[ious committees], and every indication prom[ises that] the forthcoming ball to come off at [Mechanics'] Pavilion next Monday evening [under the] auspices of George Wright Post [of the] Grand Army of the Republic will be [one of the] most brilliant social affairs of the [season]. The building will be very hand[somely] decorated with flags, bunting etc. It [is expected] that Gen. Grant will be present [on that] evening. The committee of the [Grand] Army of the Republic will be pleased [if ladies] who will donate a few flowers for [decorating] Mechanics' Pavilion for [use on] Monday night. They may be [left at the] pavilion on Monday morning or at [Messrs] [illegible] music store.

[DEATH OF] MRS. HEWITT.—Yesterday morn[ing] [illegible] Hewitt, the beloved wife of [illegible] Hewitt, the well known mer[chant] [and] Swedish and Norwegian consul [died yester]day morning at the family resi[dence] [corner of] Thirteenth and G streets. In re[spect to] the memory the flags of the English [illegible] were at half-mast to-day. De[ceased was an] amiable lady, with a sweet af[fectionate] disposition. She was highly re[spected] and loved by a very large [circle of] friends and acquaintances, who will [deeply] mourn her demise.

[THE] INSURANCE.—The entire losses [caused by] the fire yesterday morning are [about] $14,000, fully covered by insur[ance]. [illegible] & Beebe are the principal suffer[ers]. [They were] insured for $10 000 distrib[uted among] a dozen companies and claim a [illegible]. Persons [who wish to avail] themselves of this opportu[nity] can secure tickets at J. K. [Gill's] book store, and at the office foot [of Stark] street. Will probably return [illegible]. Only 100 tickets will be issued [to] Astoria and return, $[illegible] each.

[SOCIAL].—The social entertainment given [at the Y.] M. C. A. rooms last evening for the [benefit of] the Open Temperance Society at[tracted a] goodly attendance and was a most [pleasant] affair. Songs, recitations and read[ings] [were] scattered" through the evening [illegible] pleasing entertainment aside [from the] social privileges of the occasion and [illegible] were further made happy by a [supply] of good things to eat. The re[illegible] large, and much credit is due to [the] managers of the affair.

[IMPROVEMENTS].—The steamboat Calliope [at] Smith's sawmill, has been furnished [with an] upper deck and cabin and the [illegible] has been fixed up and repaired in [a] substantial manner. The carpenters [will soon] be through with their part of the [work], [and] then the painters will give her a fin[ishing] touch.

[BOUND FOR] CHINA.—The Alice Besse re[cently] purchased by Capt. J C Ainsworth is [lying at] the foot of Washington street and [presents] a lively appearance. She is to carry [a cargo] of Chinese heathen back to the flow[ery] kingdom, and the preparations for the [voyage] are being made.

HOW ASTORIA WILL RECEIVE GRANT

Our regular correspondent writing from Astoria under date of Oct 9th, says:

From information obtained mainly from THE OREGONIAN the citizens of Astoria do not anticipate that Gen Grant will remain long enough to receive a formal reception at their hands on his arrival here. We have the assurance, however in answer to telegrams sent that the general will certainly come and shake hands with us before he departs from Oregon. As the St. Paul's arrival at the mouth of the river will be announced by the booming of cannon at the forts by the time she reaches Astoria she will find the bunting from every flag staff ashore and our fleet of grain ships coasters, steamers tugboats and small craft, all decked in holiday attire with flags of every conceivable color fluttering in the breeze. What other demonstrations may be made the deponent sayeth not now, but will promptly notify THE OREGONIAN of the same.

THE TERRITORIAL LEGISLATURE TO PARTICIPATE.

OLYMPIA Oct 10.—Our legislature has accepted Portland's invitation to join in the welcome to Gen. Grant and will start to-morrow for Vancouver, and after welcoming there will proceed to Portland.

Dear General: Recognizing your distinguished services as a civilian and soldier and hoping that you may visit Puget Sound the Mediterranean of America the mayor and common council of the city of Seattle on behalf of themselves and the good people of the city whom they represent would cordially and urgently request a visit to our youthful city and an acceptance of pioneer hospitality.

PREPARATIONS AT VANCOUVER

The following is culled from the Independent:

Anticipating that Gen Grant would visit Vancouver during his stay on the north coast, Mayor Sohns published a notice calling a mass meeting to make arrangements for a reception. The meeting assembled at the city hall Tuesday evening and was called to order by the mayor. An organization was effected by electing Hon. W H Smallwood, chairman J G Blake Esq secretary.

The sentiment of the meeting was unanimously in favor of a public demonstration in honor of the distinguished guest in case he should come to Vancouver. A committee of arrangements was appointed as follows: Louis Sohns, mayor chairman and Messrs. W. H Smallwood John Eddings J G Blake Charles Brown C R Waltney N H Bloomfield M Wintler D Wall and Byron Daniels.

Wednesday evening the committee of arrangements held a meeting and decided upon the following programme: Upon the arrival of the steamer let the people assemble at the government wharf and in conjunction with the military receive the general at the landing, then proceed to the garrison and witness the military parade after which the committee will if the weather permits invite the general to the city park where an informal reception will be held. But if the weather will not permit the committee will invite the general and his party to ride through the town. In view of this it would be well for the citizens to clean up the streets, and as far as they can to appropriately decorate their places of business.

THE GRAND CENTRAL ESTABLISHMENT

A Description of H Ackerman & Co's Store In Union Block

[illegible]

No business house in Portland has made more rapid progress and [illegible] higher place in the estimation of their patrons and fellow merchants than the firm of H Ackerman & Co. Commencing business in [illegible] with a [illegible] capital [illegible]. Their store [illegible] on First street they have by fair dealing, liberal advertising and judicious management risen to be one of the representative firms of Portland. Their growth has been identical with that of the city and to-day they occupy the grandest store in the Pacific northwest and probably the finest in their line west of the Rocky mountains.

Three years after they had started in business their trade had attained such proportions that they occupied the entire upper stories of the old Strowbridge block. After the destruction of this building by fire Messrs Ackerman & Co moved into the Parish building opposite the First National bank and their trade still increasing they were compelled to divide the store and moved the wholesale department to Nos 6 and 8 North Front street.

When Messrs Corbett and Failing fixed on the plan for their magnificent block on the corner of First and Stark streets Messrs Ackerman & Co found a lot on which would be in keeping with their business and immediately leased [illegible] running through from First to Second street which will here[after] be known as

For the past ten days all the employes of the firm have been busily engaged in removing the stock to the new quarters and opening package after package of new importations and purchases. Yesterday afternoon when an OREGONIAN representative called to take a look through the store everything was in good shape but much work was yet to be done for the opening to-night.

The Second street division 50x100 feet will be devoted to the wholesale branch of their business and the First street division 54x100, will be used as

THE RETAIL DEPARTMENT

Through the center of the room runs a pyramidal row of shelves. Opposite the entrance are a number of handsome bronze clocks and figures followed by splendid specimens of decorated gold band plain and white French and English china. In this department are shown sets of pearl ware, a cross between French china and English ironstone in pattern and color equal to the former and far less expensive. Messrs Ackerman & Co are the only firm in the city handling these goods. The remainder of this fine department is filled with decorated toilet sets fancy cuspidores and spittoons.

On the row of counters on the south side are two show cases of Rogers Bros and Russell's table cutlery whose excellence are too well known all over the union to need a repetition in these columns. The next case is filled with fine fans,—ivory scented wood pearl plain painted and feathered. Under the counters are Japanese toilet sets of various designs.

THE WHOLESALE DEPARTMENT

Comprises the Second street store and the basement. Particularly noticeable are two large upright cases filled with silver plated ware. In the center of the room are samples of bronze and glass lamps duplicates of which are stored on the shelves. One counter sixty feet long is covered with samples of clocks from the Seth Thomas and other well known factories. Clocks have been and will continue to be a specialty with Messrs Ackerman & Co. On the floor are stacked piles of mirrors and one large counter is devoted to chimneys and fine shades. The shelves on the north wall are filled with ironstone china. From the ceiling hang four rows of chandeliers from one to six lights and hall and library lamps.

THE BASEMENT

Is of the same dimentions as the first floors 54x100 and 50x100 feet. That portion under the Second street front except a space reserved for the shipping department is completely filled with goods in original packages and wood and willow ware. The First street basement is used exclusively as the jobbing department for toys. The stock of express wagons dolls tin horses and wagons mechanical toys rocking horses baby carriages little tea sets tools picture books glass and shell boxes and hundreds of things that make the hearts of children glad is simply immense. A novelty for big boys and young men is an assortment of bicycles.

THE SHOW WINDOWS

The north window contains a complete set of handsomely decorated China two large bronze lamps several cut glass goblets champagne wine and cordial glasses. The south window contains as a central attraction a French clock flanked by two fine figures. There are also a number of comb and brush sets [illegible] sets and [illegible] of hand[illegible] some little articles tastefully arranged.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Yesterday afternoon the 88th anniversary of the birth of the great Irish apostle of temperance Father Mathew was duly observed in Portland by the members of the Father Mathew T A B. Society. At 10 o'clock A M the society attended high mass at the cathedral in a body. At 1 o'clock P M the society formed in procession under direction of Mr Con O'Brien the grand marshal assisted by his aids T Murthy and Mr Martin on Stark street. The procession was formed in the following order: Northwestern Band, under the leadership of Prof Brenner; members of the Father Mathew Society numbering 56, several carriages in which were seated the orator of the day, P H D'Arcy Esq of Salem and a number of the Catholic clergy. The following line of march was observed: Down Third to Oak up Oak to Fourth down Fourth to [illegible] down [illegible] to First, up First to Morrison up Morrison to Fourth up Fourth to Turn Halle.

Reaching the hall the procession marched in and were shown seats. Many ladies and their escorts had entered the hall prior to the procession so that the building was filled to its capacity. The assemblage was presided over by the president of the society Mr Jos R Wiley who when all were seated called the meeting to order. In a few neatly expressed words Mr Wiley stated the purpose and significance of the celebration and concluded by introducing to the audience Mr D'Arcy the orator for the occasion.

Mr D'Arcy came forward and was warmly received. His address occupied nearly an hour in its delivery. It was a finished scholarly effort, worthy of the occasion which evoked it and very creditable to the young gentleman. The speaker paid a warm and deserved tribute to the life and services of the great apostle of temperance.

At the conclusion of the oration the procession reformed and observed the following route homeward: Up Fourth to Jefferson down Jefferson to First, down First to Stark up Stark to the hall where the organization disbanded.

SANITARY, VACUUM DISTILLED GRAPE BRANDY AND GOOD OLD RIDGE HILL WINES

Mr Scheffler is sole proprietor of the principle known as the vacuum process of distilling by which the fusil oils are left with the residue and not incorporated with the brandy leaving it pure and free from all deleterious substances which does and must exist in all alcoholic liquors distilled by the usual process of boiling heat. California Physicians have pronounced their preference of it to all other. Doctor Cox government revenue officer at Cincinnati Ohio says in his report that after ten years of close investigation he can safely say that very few if any pure wines or brandy are exported from the Old Continent to this. He has found none in his many analyses—that all are doctored before leaving France. The French Consul at Buenos Ayres writes home to his government that so much complaint is made there of the appearance of fuchsine and other dangerous drugs in all their French wines that there is great danger of losing the trade of the Argentine States. Other proofs could be cited were it necessary to prove the superiority of the best class of California wines and brandy. Orders from responsible parties addressed to Wm Scheffler or Geo H Beach St Helena Napa county Cal, will receive prompt attention.

A PROMISING "BOOM" FROM THE EAST

NEW YORK, Sept. 27, 1879.

Have about finished up here and expect to be with you a week or so after you receive this. Feist & Franks' failure has had a bad effect on the booming market and has made CASH twice as big as it was. I have used all you sent me and want more. I cleared a Philadelphia manufacturer out of two lines of Spreads yesterday and have forwarded you a good White Jaquard Quilt to sell for 50c., and a Large Colored Spread, heavy and fringed, to sell for $1—worth $1.65 by the case and sold every day for that money. You will receive some excellent Rubber Ulsters for ladies, such as we sold last season for $4 50, which you can sell for $3, and a lot with large double capes equally cheap. I cleared the French Kid Gloves this morning. Portland has never seen such goods at the price. The "Jouvin Coupe" is a Glove which you can warrant in every particular.

The BLACK SILKS I wrote you of are in the Custom-house, but I expect to get them through and on the road Monday. The 75c TRIMMING SILK will take the town by storm. I came to terms with the Fairmount Mill (T. Bros & Co.) and they have shipped the Check Dress Goods, to sell at 20 yards for $1. They are actually worth 20 cts. per yard and the patterns are quite new. [illegible] remit £408 in sight exchange to the [Ha]ybrook Spinning Co., Belfast. It is the last payment on the Linen Purchase. I shall mail you a batch of invoices this evening.

Very truly, &c., D. S. COHEN.

P. S.—I picked up a lot of RUBBER UMBRELLAS at auction Thursday. They are retailing here at $2 50; elegant and durable goods. We will be able to sell them for $1 50. I offered that for a duplicate, but couldn't get them.

In connection with the above we will state that some of the goods have arrived. They are too numerous to be enumerated but even a casual inspection will convince any one that the place to trade is at the [illegible] valuable discoveries and much useful knowledge is kept from the world, because of the [illegible] purpose in making them known to the people. This is not the case with Boschee's German Syrup. Although but a few years introduced [illegible] this country, its sale now reaches in every town and village in the United States. Its wonderful success in curing consumption, severe Coughs, [illegible], Asthma, and all other diseases of the throat and lungs, was first made known by distributing every year, for three years, over 400 000 bottles to the afflicted, free of charge by druggists. [illegible] a test of merit was ever given before to any other preparation. Could you ask more? Go to your druggist and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents

REASONS WHY

SO MANY USE

ROYAL LAUNDRY SOAP.

1 Because only the VERY BEST materials are used in its construction.

3, Because it never fails to give complete satisfaction
